About fifty feet of the sewer ditch in Commerce street South of Second caved in last night. That part of the street is made ground and the jar of passing trains on the C. and O. is likely the cause of the ground giving way. It was fortunate it occurred at night after the workmen had left the trench.

A false alarm was sent in last night by an excited citizen of East Fourth who thought his neighbor's house was afire. Mr. John Davidson of East Fifth street bought a new stove yesterday and when a fire was started it created such a smell that it made his neighbor panicky and he imagined the whole hillside was being consumed. Hence the dead run the boys had for nothing.

Nominated by Acclamation

JOSEPH B. BENNETT

Named For Congress By Ninth District Republicans

The Most Enthusiastic Convention Ever Held in This City

JUDGE J. B. BENNETT.

The Republican Congressional Convention of the Ninth District was called to order at the Courthouse in this city at 11 a. m. yesterday by Judge W. G. Dearing of Fleming, who had been Chairman of the Cynthiana Convention.

Judge Dearing stated that the object was to nominate a candidate for Congress in place of the Hon. Sam J. Pugh, who had declined the nomination tendered him at Cynthiana; and in an effective speech he reviewed the successes of Republican principles and the utter failure of Democratic promises.

Hon. Harding Gilbert of Carter was named as Temporary Chairman, who thanked the Convention in a few well chosen remarks.

Colonel John D. Littlejohn of Grayson was made Temporary Secretary.

There being no contests, the usual Committees on Credentials and Resolutions were dispensed with.

The Temporary organization was made permanent, and the Convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for Congress.

Upon the call of the roll, when Lewis county was reached, Hon. William C. Halbert of Vanceburg, in behalf of the 2,500 Republicans of the State of Lewis, presented the name of the Hon. Joseph B. Bennett of Greenup—Mr. Halbert's speech being received with hearty applause.

Mr. Sam T. Hickman of Mason moved that the nomination of Judge Bennett be declared by acclamation, which was seconded by Mr. H. B. Bryson of Nicholas.

And Judge Bennett won unanimously and with a whoop.

Being presented, Judge Bennett accepted the nomination in a stirring address. He had hoped the honor would go to some other, but he never shirked a duty imposed by his party. He believed in honesty in politics as well as honesty in business, and assured the Republicans of the District that he would use every honorable means to achieve success in November.

Judge Bennett's sincere utterances brought forth unstinted applause, and the enthusiasm of the delegates gave bright promise for glorious results.

At the conclusion of his address to Convention adjourned.

Mr. George W. Orr and family have taken up their residence in the Charles D. Pearce property lately vacated by William Royster.

Her son, John, now a soldier in the Philippine Islands, is cut off without a cent. It is said that the will is to be contested.

Did you notice the personnel of yesterday's Republican Convention—the stalwart, sober, earnest, substantial, intelligent men who came from all the counties, and the business-like way in which they went at the business before them? The presence of such a splendid body of men in Maysville was the subject of many complimentary remarks from our citizens.

The diggers for the foundation of the out-of-town Government Building, at a depth of six or eight feet, bumped into a large, well-ripened mine of tanbark. How long it has reposed in that "hole in the ground," no one now living appears to know; and whether it extends to Hades or Hongkong can be determined only by continued digging. In the meantime, Mr. WINDOM of the Treasury Department played hell when he chose that site for Uncle Sam's Postoffice.

EVEN China has given BILLY BRYAN a black eye. She is going to adopt the Gold Standard.

THE nomination of Judge J. B. BENNETT for Congress marks the turning point in Republican management in the Ninth District. It means that the party has been rescued from control of those who have so long used it for their own personal promotion, and that hereafter every competent, worthy man will have a fair show. As Judge BENNETT aptly said in his speech of acceptance, "Honesty is the Best Policy," and he has declared for honesty in politics as well as for honesty in business. The Republicans of the Ninth District did a noble work yesterday.

Political Pickings

A LIE OUT—WHO TOLD IT?

Lexington Democrat.

Governor Thorne says that he pardoned Clem Buchter, —the unnatural fiend who killed his own daughter because of jealousy of her,—because he is insane, has locomotor ataxia and is blind. Dr. H. L. Tobin, the Penitentiary Physician and Surgeon, denies each and every allegation. There is a lie out. Who has told it? Meantime the pardon is the most outrageous ever issued, and a long-suffering people plead with Governor Beckham to give the Lieutenant no further chance to disgrace the Administration.

What the Appellate Court Said in Reversing the Case

The Court of Appeals recently reversed the suit of Robert W. Dryden v. the H. E. Pogue Distillery Company, the opinion, delivered by Judge Barker, being as follows—

Master and Servant—Personal Injury—Use of Dangerous Machinery—Ignorance of Servant—Peremptory Instructions.—In an action by plaintiff alleging the loss of a hand by machinery in the use of which he was inexperienced, and wherein he testified that he was directed by the superintendent of the defendant company to place himself under the orders of the miller, who put him to work in a dangerous place of which he was ignorant, with insufficient light, and who assured him it was safe to do the work, and in doing which his hand was caught in the roller and crushed so as to render amputation necessary, it was error in the Court at the conclusion of plaintiff's testimony to give the Jury peremptory instructions to find for the defendant.

Allan D. Cole and Frank P. O'Donnell were the Attorneys for appellant; Thomas R. Phister, Pogue & Pogue for appellee.

The Kentucky State Optical Association meets at Winchester October 18th.

Dover's first registration resulted in the lining up of 121 voters—56 Democrats, 40 Republicans and 25 others.

Mr. John M. Kirk, Traveling Freight Agent of the Rock Island and Frisco Railway System, is in the city, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. C. O. Pickett left Wednesday for her home at Omaha, Neb., after having spent the summer with her parents near Germantown. She was accompanied as far as St. Louis by Mrs. Dan Lloyd, where they will be met by Mr. Pickett and spend a few days at the World's Fair.

The New Albany (Ind.) correspondent of The Louisville Herald says Fred Howe, of this place, who served in the United States Army in the Philippines, was in that city Wednesday on his way to New Orleans. He could not talk above a whisper, the result of a shot in the neck, the bullet severing the vocal chords.

THE LEDGER yesterday got the item wrong in regard to the promotion of Mr. George Bruce of Houston, Tex. Mr. Bruce has occupied the position of Cashier in the Passenger Department of the Southern Pacific Railway for some time, but has lately been made Chief in the Advertising Department of the road, a more responsible and lucrative place.

"TO DIE AT DAWN."

The escape from the counterfeiters cave and the terrific ride for life as performed by Miss Elsie Crescy upon the back of a trained thoroughbred horse is perhaps the most exciting scene introduced in any play of modern times and is a principal feature in E. Laurence Lee's monster production of "To Die at Dawn," a story of the Kentucky mountains, which is the attraction at The Washington Wednesday, October 12th.

TO WEAK WOMEN

OF MAYSVILLE AND VICINITY

We Make the Following Proposition.

"There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said Mr. Pecor. "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength-creating tonic."

"Now, at our expense, we want to ask every such woman to try our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich, red blood and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in this condition it makes life worth living. When we say 'at our expense,' we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you—we will refund every cent of it cheerfully, and thus you try it at our expense."

Miss Mary A. Woodward of Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I think Vinol is the best remedy in the world for a weak, tired, worn-out system. I was just in that condition when I commenced to take Vinol. It gave me new life and energy, and after using three bottles I felt like a different woman. I feel well and strong and better than I have for years. I believe Vinol will do much more than is claimed for it." I can only ask Maysville women to try Vinol on our guarantee. John C. Pecor, Druggist.

The battleship Ohio was placed in commission.

The wool season has just closed in Montrose county, Col., with the record of over 300,000 pounds of wool shipped out, the largest output in the history of the county. About 50,000 head of sheep were maintained on the range, in this county, last season.

Two bridal couples from Fleming were driven to this city Wednesday afternoon, taking the train here for St. Louis to spend their honeymoon. One couple was Mr. J. Q. Grannis and bride, nee Miss Rose Lawson, and the other Mr. and Mrs. J. Marvin McIntire, the latter nee Miss Nannie M. Ross.

WALTON—FOXWORTHY.

GOODMAN—BULLOCK.

ANOTHER BIG HIT.

The DePew-Burdette Stock Co. presented another new play last night. The bill was "The Country Boy," a clean cut comedy drama which gave Mr. Depew a good opportunity to display his talents as a comedian. He kept the audience roaring all of the time. Mr. Burdette as "Loan Star" scored a big hit. The scenery and costumes were new and gorgeous. The specialties as usual were all good. Mr. Frank Lynch in ragtime singing and dancing won great applause as also did Mr. Thomas L. Brower in illustrated songs assisted by Mr. George Woods. The bill tonight will be that grand old play of "Rip Van Winkle" with all special scenery and electrical effects.

TWELFTH NIGHT.

Miss Charlotte Burnett who is being "starred" by Manager Joseph Shipman as "Viola" has, at last, realized the ambition of her life. When a child she loved the stage and everything pertaining to it, but most of all she loved the bewitching "Viola" who, in the words of the poet "Never told her love, but let concealment like a worm in the bud feed on her damask cheek." That is why Miss Burnett thoroughly realizes every phase of this many sided character. Her support is excellent. Mr. George Seybolt as Malvolio, displays the spirit of true comedy. The same may be said of Mr. J. F. McCarthy as Sir Toby Belch. A host of other comedy characters make this performance far more laughable than the most uproarious farce comedy of the modern school of playwrights. At the Washington, Monday October 10th. Sale of seats, for subscribers only, opens at the box office, this afternoon from 1 to 4.

Third—That the proceeds of the said bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in this order.

Fourth—That this Court shall provide for the collection of a Sinking Fund Tax sufficient to pay the interest and for the payment thereof, within the term for which the bonds shall be issued, or sooner if desired by the Fiscal Court of Mason County, but not in any event within the term of ten years, provided that the said Sinking Fund Tax shall be levied only on property which is now taxable for County Infirmary purposes in Mason county.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. — LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Cuticura Saved Her Life, So Mother Says.

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies,
but nothing did her any good, in fact,
she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could,
she would tear her face and arms
almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and any one suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial." MRS. G. A. CONRAD, Lisof kidney trouble. I have told my friends of the remarkable value of this preparation and advise them to get it at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of Market and West Second street and give it a trial."
